QUOTES

Men are wise in proportion, not to their experience, but to their capacity for experience.

~ George Bernard Shaw ~

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has.

~ Margaret Mead ~

The fact that a believer is happier than a skeptic is no more to the point than the fact that a drunken man is happier than a sober one. The happiness of credulity is a cheap and dangerous quality.

~ George Bernard Shaw ~

No man, for any considerable period, can wear one face to himself and another to the multitude, without finally getting bewildered as to which one is true.

~ Nathaniel Hawthorne ~

There is no coming to consciousness without pain.

~ Carl Jung ~

NOTICES

Code of Ethics

The CTP Code of Ethics is now on the website at: <http://ctp.net/ctp-code-of-ethics> as well as the UN Code of Ethics, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, and the Ontario Human Rights Code.

All CTP students, Therapist-in Supervision, Graduates and Faculty are to familiarize themselves with these codes.

MISCELLANEOUS

Navigating in the CTP Website

When clicking on a link, occasionally you will get a “page not found” error or some variation thereof. Often the message will instruct you to click on another page. Try this, as it sometimes does take you to the homepage where you can navigate to the desired page.

Regardless of where you are in the CTP site, you can always get back to the homepage by clicking on the green header at the top of the menu bar on the left side of the screen where it says “Center for Training in Psychotherapy”.

If a link takes you to a page that leaves the CTP site, you can get back to the CTP site by clicking the “back” button on the toolbar of your Internet browser.

LIBRARY

The CTP library is open, please see Jackie Herner for details regarding lending of books and using the CTP library computer.
