SEMINAR: Sharon Bedard

Diversity amongst Clinicians and Clients

This seminar is intended to help us to begin to explore the meaning of diversity as it appears through culture, faith, gender, orientation, disability ... In our work as clinicians, diversity occurs in both our clinical population and amongst us as practitioners. Because personal idiom is often composed of the intersection of several identities – our capacity as clinicians to be attentive to the multiplicities of experience is essential as we work both with differences and similarities.

An important component of our conversations together will include the exploration of both theory, autobiographical writings and film.

CAPT members are welcome and will be invited to speak with me about their own clinical experience in order to determine whether or not they will benefit from this seminar.

Readings are supplied prior to the seminar and the first reading will be available during the summer.

Dates and Times : the days will be Saturdays 10:30 – 2:00, approximately once a month, specific dates will be sent.

Location: Depending on the size – my home. 78 Bertmount Ave., Toronto.
