Intersubjectivity

Intersubjectivity

This concentration will follow the lectures given in 2020. We will be reading and discussing more closely the writings of the Intersubjectivists, Jessica Benjamin, and Thomas Ogden, as well as other theorists we only touched on. An important aspect of Intersubjectivity was the inclusion of Diversity and Intersectionality as a way to situate our self within our own subjective stance and the subjectivity of our clients.

I am hoping that we can also find a movie or two to help focus our discussions around specific aspects of the theories.

Each seminar will focus on a different article. Articles are not assigned in advance but follow from each meeting and the directions that the conversation takes. An outline will be provided during the summer with details about assignment and presentation requirements.

Dates and Times : the days will be Saturdays 10:00 – 1:30, approximately once a month, specific dates will be sent.

Location: Depending on the size – my home. 78 Bertmount Ave., Toronto. Email : sbedard-1@rogers.com
